- (5) Failure to pay the subscription fee by the due date will result in reversion to Ordinary Member status.

10 Members' liabilities

The liability of a member of the Association to contribute to the payment of either of the following is limited to the amount of any outstanding fees for the member under clause 9:

- (a) the debts and liabilities of the Association,
- (b) the costs, charges, and expenses of the winding up of the Association.

11 Disciplinary action against members

- (1) A person may make a complaint to the Committee that a member of the Association has:
  - (a) failed to comply with a provision of this constitution,
  - (b) failed to comply with a rule made under clause 35, or
  - (c) wilfully acted in a way prejudicial to the interests of the Association.
- (2) The Committee may initiate disciplinary action on its own motion, without a complaint being made, if it forms a reasonable belief that disciplinary action is warranted.
- (3) The Committee may initiate disciplinary where a member has:
  - (a) failed to remedy a breach notice issued under the Association Rules within the period specified in the notice, or
  - (b) received 3 breach notices within the same financial year, whether or not each individual breach was remedied.
- (4) For the purposes of this clause, a breach notice issued under the Association Rules is taken to be a failure to comply with a Rule made under clause 35.
- (5) For the purposes of subclause (1)(c), repeat failure to comply with the Association Rules, or the accumulation of 3 breach notices in a financial year, is taken to be conduct prejudicial to the interest of the Association.

- (6) If the Committee decides to deal with a matter under this clause, the Committee must –
  - (a) serve written notice of proposed disciplinary action on the member, and
  - (b) give the member at least 14 days from the date the notice is served to make written or oral submissions to the Committee, and
  - (c) consider any submissions made before making a decision.
- (7) After considering all submissions, the Committee may, by resolution, take one or more of the following actions –
  - (a) take no further action,
  - (b) issue a written warning,
  - (c) require the member to take specified remedial steps,
  - (d) suspend the member from the Association for a period determined by the Committee, or
  - (e) expel the member from the Association.
- (8) The Committee must ensure that any action taken is reasonable and proportionate in view of the conduct and the number or seriousness of the breaches.
- (9) If the Committee resolves to suspend or expel a member, the Secretary must, within 7 days, give the member written notice of –
  - (a) the action taken, and
  - (b) the reasons for the action, and
  - (c) the member's right to appeal under clause 12.
- (10) A suspension or expulsion does not take effect until the later of –
  - (a) the expiry of the period within which the member may lodge an appeal under clause 12, or
  - (b) if the member lodges an appeal – the date on which the Association confirms the resolution under clause 12.

- (11) The Committee may refuse to deal with any complaint or disciplinary matter where it considers the matter to be frivolous, trivial, vexatious, or lacking substance.
- (12) Subclause 11 does not limit the Committee's ability to act on its own motion under subclauses (2) or (3).

12 Right of appeal against disciplinary action

- (1) A member may appeal against a resolution of the Committee under clause 11 by lodging a notice of appeal with the Secretary within 7 days of being served notice of the resolution.
- (2) The member may include, with the notice of appeal, a statement of the grounds on which the member intends to rely for the purposes of the appeal.
- (3) The Secretary must notify the Committee that the Secretary has received a notice of appeal.
- (4) If notified that a notice has been received, the Committee must call a Special General Meeting of the Association to be held within 28 days of the day the notice was received.
- (5) At the general meeting:
  - (a) no business other than the question of the appeal is to be transacted,
  - (b) the member must be given an opportunity to state the member's case orally or in writing, or both,
  - (c) the member must be given an opportunity to state the Committee's case orally or in writing, or both, and
  - (d) the members present must vote by secret ballot on the question of whether the resolution should be confirmed or revoked.
- (6) The appeal is to be determined by a simple majority of votes cast by the members present and eligible to vote at a general meeting.

13 Resolution of internal disputes

- (1) The following disputes must be referred to a Community Justice Centre within the meaning of the Community Justice Centres Act 1983 for mediation:
  - (a) a dispute between 2 or more members of the Association, but only if the dispute is between the members in their capacity as members, or

- (b) a dispute between 1 or more members and the Association.
- (2) If the dispute is not resolved by mediation within 3 months of being referred to the Community Justice Centre, the dispute must be referred to arbitration.
- (3) The Commercial Arbitration Act 2010 applies to a dispute referred to arbitration.

14 Membership entitlements not transferable

- (a) cannot be transferred to another person, and
- (b) terminates once the person ceases to be a member of the Association.

15 Member resignation

- (1) A member of the Association may resign from being a member by giving the Secretary written notice of at least 1 week, or another period determined by the Committee, of the member's intention to resign.
- (2) The member ceases to be a member on the expiration of the notice period.

16 Cessation of membership

A person ceases to be a member of the Association if the person:

- (a) dies, or
- (b) resigns from being a member, or
- (c) is expelled from the Association.

Part 3 Committee

Division 1 Constitution

17 Functions of the committee

Subject to the Act, the Regulation, this constitution and any resolution passed by the Association in a general meeting, the Committee:

- (a) is to control and manage the affairs of the Association, and
- (b) may exercise all the functions that may be exercised by the Association, other than a function that is required to be exercised by the Association in a general meeting and has power to do all things that are necessary or convenient to be done for the proper management of the affairs of the Association.

18 Composition of the committee

- (1) The Committee is to consist of 9 members, as elected in accordance with clause 19, consisting of:
  - (a) the following 4 Office-Bearers:
    - (i) the President,
    - (ii) the Vice-President,
    - (iii) the Secretary,
    - (iv) the Treasurer, and
  - (b) 3 Representative Committee Members elected from the following operational groupings of the NSW SES:
    - (i) Metro & South Operations,
    - (ii) North & West Operations
    - (iii) State Headquarters
  - (c) 1 Representative Committee Member elected from among NSW SES volunteer members of the Association, and
  - (d) 1 Representative Committee Member elected from among NSW SES staff members of the Association.

Note: The Act, section 28 contains requirements relating to membership eligibility, composition of the Committee, and that the Committee must have a minimum of 3 members.

- (2) An Office-Bearer may hold up to 2 offices, other than both the offices of President and Vice-President.
- (3) Additional Representative Committee Member positions may be established to reflect changes to the NSW SES structure, provided that the creation of each additional position is confirmed by resolution at a general meeting.

19 Election of committee members

- (1) Any member of the Association may be nominated as a candidate for election as an Office-Bearer at the Annual General Meeting, in accordance with clause 36.
- (2) Only members who are ordinarily assigned to, or based within, a specific operational directorate of the NSW SES, other than State Headquarters, may nominate for, or vote in, the election for the Representative Committee
